Hennessey Estate: Where Historic Napa Meets Modern Luxury

Originally built in the late 19th century, The Hennessey Estate is a striking example of Stick-Eastlake architecture, commissioned by Dr. Edwin Hennessey and meticulously crafted by Napa carpenter M.E. Johnson. For nearly a century, this Victorian gem stood as a private residence before its transformation into a beloved bed and breakfast in 1985. Now under new ownership and fresh from an extensive 2025 remodel, Hennessey Estate has been thoughtfully restored—seamlessly blending its rich heritage with contemporary elegance.

Featuring 10 beautifully appointed guest rooms across two buildings, each space is designed for ultimate comfort and relaxation. Wake up to a professional chef created breakfast from the state-of-the-art commercial kitchen. Admire the meticulously maintained historic architecture, including original stained glass windows, lounge by the brand new sparkling pool and spa, or unwind in the ever-inviting common areas after a day of exploring the world renowned Napa Valley. Situated in the heart of downtown Napa, the capital of California Wine Country, Hennessey Estate provides the perfect home base for your elevated Napa Valley getaway, inviting you to relax, recharge, and return again.
